

I have been very pleased with the NJ do not call law and would be very upset if that law was weakened in any way. If businesses that I buy from in NJ get the right to call, I would try to order off the internet instead to avoid being harrassed by sales calls.